Article IV. NOMINATION OF CANDIDATES

Section 4.01 Candidate "Search" Councils may be established by the General Meeting, the Executive Council, and the Locals

- (a) A Nevada Green Party Candidate Search Council will be formed of not less than three participating members of the Nevada Green Party.
- (b) Each Local may form a search council, or the statewide search council may act to form County and District or other local search councils by random selection of up to fifteen Green Party registered voters from each district in which there is to be an election. The selected voters would be invited to meet and select candidates for local office. These councils will have the assistance of a statewide search council member or other person familiar with the nominating process.
 - (i) Each search council is charged with:

- 1) Preparing a list of possible candidates for local offices and other offices and conveying lists of any possible candidates not in their jurisdiction to the appropriate search council;
- 2) Contacting the prospective candidates, advising the candidates of the Nevada Green Party candidate qualifications requirements, and interviewing all potential candidates who might appear on the local ballot by a group of three search council members, if possible;
- 3) Meeting again to review, evaluate and draft a recommendation for one or more candidates for each position;
- 4) Holding a candidates presentation meeting and inviting all aspiring Green candidates who might appear on the ballot;
- (c) The local search councils will hold nominating conventions for the selection of local candidates to assure that no more than one Green Party candidate is to appear for each office
- (d) The statewide search council will make their recommendations and introduce the potential candidates to the Nevada Green Party Nominating Convention to be held in March or April of each General Election year.
- (e) All selections of candidates will be by ballot which will have as a binding option "None of the Above" (NOTA) and a means of identifying preference so that Instant Runoff Voting (IRV) is supported. We will seek unanimity in our choice of candidates, and provide all suitable opportunity to members to voice concerns and take blocking positions on the selection of candidates. If anyone should present reasons to prevent an individual's candidacy the Convention may choose to uphold the proposed block by a ballot vote of not less than 50%.
- (f) Voting at local nominating conventions will be by Green Party members.
- (g) Voting at the statewide nominating conventions will be by registered Green Party members who have been participants in Green Party activities and selected, and certified, by Locals or by the state party where Locals are not active.

Article V. AMENDMENTS TO BYLAWS

Section 5.01 These Bylaws may be amended by a regular or special General Meeting of the Nevada Green Party.

Section 5.02 The Bylaws of the Nevada Green Party may be amended by a General Meeting for which a possible bylaws amendment has been announced. The decision to amend requires consensus or, if consensus is not achieved and more than half of the members present determines that a vote must be taken, a two thirds majority.
